PERFORMANT RECOVERY, INC.’S AMENDED DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 7.1 of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims, Defendant-Intervenor Performant Recovery, Inc. (“Performant Recovery”) hereby respectfully submits this amended disclosure statement. The purpose of this filing is to correct an inaccuracy in Performant Recovery’s initial disclosure statement.

On February 13, 2018, Performant Recovery filed a motion to intervene in the above-captioned consolidated bid protests. The disclosure statement accompanying that motion incorrectly indicated that Performant Recovery has no parent corporation. ^{1/} Performant Recovery does have a parent corporation. Performant Business Services, Inc. owns and controls Performant Recovery, and Performant Financial Corporation, in turn, owns and controls

^{1/} ECF No. 15-1.

Performant Business Services, Inc. Performant Financial Corporation, a publicly-held company, is Performant Recovery's ultimate parent.

Performant Recovery's initial disclosure statement indicated that "no publicly-held corporation owns 10% or more of [Performant Recovery's] stock." 2/ No publicly-traded corporation directly owns 10% or more of Performant Recovery's stock. Performant Financial Corporation, which is a publicly-held corporation, indirectly owns Performant Recovery through its ownership of Performant Business Services, Inc.

Performant Recovery regrets the error in its initial disclosure statement.
